The eleven-plus (11-plus) is an examination administered to some students in England and Northern Ireland in their last year of primary education, which governs admission to grammar schools and other secondary schools which use academic selection. The name derives from the age group for secondary entry: 11–12 years. The eleven-plus was once used throughout England and Wales, but is now only ...

We propose that in order to be admitted as a solicitor, individuals would need to pass a new centralised exam, called the Solicitors Qualifying Examination (SQE). At present, the numbers of organisations involved in assessing prospective solicitors make it difficult to ensure all new solicitors are assessed to the same standard. Our proposals would provide a more reliable and rigorous test of ...
