Scenes of Subjection - Paperback - Saidiya V. Hartman

Her first book, Scenes of Subjection: Terror, Slavery, and Self-Making in Nineteenth-Century America is an examination of, among other topics, the intersection of slavery, gender, and the development of progressivism in the United States. Working through a variety of cultural materials — diaries, journals, legal texts, slave and other narratives, and historical song and dance—Hartman explores the precarious institution of slave power.
