Historians were then confronted with a problem: how to integrate the timescale of their own domain, the conceptual space of historical time, with the new chronologies of depth a prospect fraught, as we have seen, with a number of anxieties. Arthur Machen and the Horrors of Deep History 219 Faced with this challenge, historiography elected to decline the invitation altogether, opting instead to blend the ideational space of history with that of Biblical time, the short chronology of Ussher.

Horrors and Horror: The Response of Tragedy 743 Purgatorio. For Dante, if there is to emerge any Divina Commedia (that is, for the medievals, comedy meant a positive outcome of love, not horror as the ultimate reality), so decisively positive an outcome can happen only for a person willing to endure through, not around, the horrors of life.
