Banking Sector Reforms have been a regular feature in the Nigerian financial system, conducted mainly to improve the performance of commercial banks on the one hand and to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the banking system and the economy in general.

Banking Sector Reforms and the Performance of Commercial

Microfinance initially had a limited definition - the provision of microloans to poor entrepreneurs and small businesses lacking access to bank and related services. The two main mechanisms for the delivery of financial services to such clients were: (1) relationship-based banking for individual entrepreneurs and small businesses; and (2) group-based models, where several entrepreneurs come ...
